THE CRAIG BODDINGTON SALMON FISHING TOURNAMENT July 29 – August 1, 2011

WITH UPWARDS OF $100,000.00 IN PRIZES

Limited space available for this tournament

Craig Boddington is a world renowned author and television personality. Known as the “Dean of African Hunting” he has authored over 3500 articles on hunting the world. Craig has enjoyed fishing with us at Black Gold and wrote a story in the Safari Times September ‘09 issue. In that story, Craig talked about the “cross-over-sportsman” – hunters that fish and fishers that hunt. That gave us the idea for this tournament.

It’s no secret that tournament host, Jim Rough of Black Gold Lodge is an avid hunter-fisher and has done both on more than a few continents. This tournament, is what we call “the derby with a difference”. Almost all prizes are hunting Safaris with a few world class fishing destinations to be sure there is something for everyone. These prize Safaris are on three continents - North America, New Zealand and Africa. Read the pages that follow for full descriptions of these prizes...

Enjoy a wilderness experience like none other when you visit Black Gold Lodge in Rivers Inlet, British Columbia, Canada. This remote destination is a self-contained, comfortable, modern, floating lodge in a sheltered harbor near the entrance to Rivers Inlet. Prizes to be for our Friday – Monday trips for the 2012 season (space available). We have operated our Lodge in Rivers Inlet for 23 years and have been growing steadily. This can only happen by offering quality service and equipment. Rivers Inlet is world renowned for it's huge Chinook Salmon, in fact the world record Chinook was caught off the mouth of the inlet. During work on the hatchery programs in the fall of each year, Chinook of 100 lbs. plus are regularly found in the river systems. This along with over-sized Coho Salmon entering the Inlet each summer puts Rivers Inlet in a class all it's own. All other pacific salmon and the usual assortment of bottom fish – Halibut, Ling cod etc. are available as well. Situated on the rugged central coast of B.C. it is a haven for all the marine mammals.
